

Bad weather arrangements for Student Body Registration and Hall Information Day 2024

When Tropical Storm Warning Signal No. 8 (or a higher number), the Black Rainstorm Warning Signal or “Extreme conditions” after super typhoons are in force is hoisted, the following arrangements will apply:

If either of the warnings is hoisted or in force at or after 6:00 am on August 10	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Both sessions of August 10 will be cancelled. Students who are supposed to come in the a.m. session of August 10 should come to register in the a.m. session of August 11 and students who are supposed to come in the p.m. session of August 10 should come in the p.m. session of August 11.- Both a.m. and p.m. sessions originally scheduled on August 11 will be postponed by one day to August 12.
If either of the warnings is hoisted or in force at or after 11:00 am on August 10	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The p.m. session of August 10 will be cancelled automatically. Students should come to register in the p.m. session of August 11.- Both a.m. and p.m. sessions originally scheduled on August 11 will be postponed by one day to August 12.
If either of the warnings is hoisted or in force at or after 6:00 am on August 11	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Both a.m. and p.m. sessions of August 11 will be cancelled. Students who are supposed to come in the a.m. session of August 11 should come to register in the a.m. session of August 12 and students who are supposed to come in the p.m. session of August 11 should come in the p.m. session of August 12.
If either of the warnings is hoisted or in force at or after 11:00 am on August 11	<ul style="list-style-type: none">- The p.m. session of August 11 will be cancelled automatically. Students should come to register in the p.m. session of August 12.

- If the session has already started when one of the warnings is hoisted, it will continue until the end of the session.

Centre of Development and Resources for Students

31 July 2024