YMCA International Youth Forum: Striving for Global Citizenship for All

16th – 19th July 2010

Every four years, the YMCA holds an international forum where youths from over 120 countries come together for leadership development and training, exchange, and fellowship. This year focuses on the theme of "Striving for Global Citizenship for All", and it aims to:

- engage young people in addressing and sharing on the global issues that impact their lives and the communities in which they live and belong
- strengthen the momentum of YMCA's Millennium Development Goals and devise strategies for overcoming the continuing challenges to their realization
