Application for University Financial Assistance (Main Exercise) 2021-2022

• Nature of UFA:

Supplementing Government financial assistance schemes, there are a number of bursaries and interest-free loans managed by the University to assist students with financial hardship. These awards, donated by private organisations and individuals, are allocated primarily for full-time local students on the basis of their financial needs.

• Funding of UFA (Main Exercise):

Over 90% of the University bursaries and loan funds are available for disbursement in the Main Exercise and about 10% are retained for application by students with emergency needs throughout the year. Major bursaries and loan funds to be disbursed in the Main Exercise include the following:

- Civil Engineering Loan Fund
- Dental $5 Loan Fund
- Engineering Society & Engineering Alumni Association Loan Fund
- Evergreen Bursaries
- Foo-man Li & Shang-jen Wong Bursary in Mathematics and Physics
- Goh Cheov Seang Memorial Bursaries
- Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (HKICPA) Bursaries
- Hong Kong Rotary Club Students' Loan Fund
- Hsin Chong - K.N. Godfrey Yeh Education Fund
- Joyce M. Kuok Foundation Bursaries
- Ko Ho Ning Bursaries
- S.K. Yee Medical Foundation Bursaries
- Sing Tao Charitable Foundation Students' Loan Fund
- Taufik Ali Memorial Bursaries
- Tony Shum Education Fund Bursary
- The Cl Stapleton Scholarship
- The K.K. Ho Bursary
- Winsor Education Foundation Loan Fund
- Wong Shek-Yung Memorial Bursary
- Yung Foundation Earth Sciences Loan Fund
- Other Need-based Loans/Bursaries

The Centre of Development and Resources for Students (CEDARS) is responsible for the assessment of all applications but final decisions will be made by the respective Selection Committees of the funding bodies.

• Target Groups:

Students anticipating difficulties in balancing their budgets for the academic year. This application exercise is not for students with urgent needs. Students with urgent needs should apply for Emergency Assistance.

• Assessment Criteria:

- Assessment will take into consideration applicants' resources, expenditure and family financial circumstances. Only under very exceptional circumstances will awards be made to applicants who have not made full use of the Government financial assistance.
- The scheme operates on a point system.
- Points are given to applicants with demonstrated hardship arising from,
 - expenses not covered or duly covered by the Government financial assistance scheme, e.g.
 - accommodation expenses for living away from home
 - special academic expenses (personal computer, study aids, longer academic year, clerkship, placement, expenses relating to specific programme of studies, etc.)
 - transportation costs for those not eligible for Student Travel Subsidy
 - inadequate family support arising from changes in family financial circumstances or special family circumstances

Due to limited funding, only those applicants with point scores above the cut off will be given assistance.

• Results:

Results of application will be available from November 2021 onwards.
