

Customs YES Summer Internship Programme

Prospectus

Objective of the Programme

The Customs YES “Summer Internship Programme” aims to provide hands-on job opportunities to eligible members and enable the participants to:

- Explore the society for personal goals and future career development;
- Understand oneself and realise their full potential;
- Develop positive outlook towards life and a stronger sense of belonging to the community.

Duration

From June to August 2025

Target Participants

Customs YES members aged 18 or above may apply for the placements

Types of Placements

- In collaboration with counterparts of Customs and Excise Department, this programme provides placements of various industries or fields:
 - Legal and other professional services
 - Communications, logistics and transport
 - Property Management, construction and engineering
 - Education, cultural creativity and media
 - Internet, e-commerce and innovation
 - Retail and marketing
- Eligible members may apply for suitable placements according to the respective entry requirements on various knowledge and skills, academic qualifications or work experience.
- The placements under this programme will not involve high-risk work activities (e.g. to operate heavy machinery, to perform duties of an obnoxious nature or under harsh conditions).

Employment Relationship

- Members with successful placements will be employed directly by the recruiting companies / organisations for a period of four to eight weeks.

Application Procedures

- Eligible members may submit applications by email
- Eligible members meet the entry requirements of their preferred placements will be invited for an online preliminary interview by Customs YES Secretariat.
- Qualified applicants will be invited for an interview with the recruiting companies / organisations between May and June 2025.
- Members with successful placements will be notified before July 2025.
- After completing the internship placements, members are required to attend a “Summer Internship Programme Certificate Presentation Ceremony”.