How can I view the course effectiveness of a course?

- The results of course evaluation can be accessed by teachers and students via the Student Information System (SIS). Please follow the path: HKU Portal > Student Information System > HKU Course Management > Course Effectiveness.

The screenshot displays the 'Course Effectiveness Profile' page in the HKU Student Information System. The sidebar on the left contains navigation links, with 'Course Effectiveness Profile' highlighted. The main content area includes search filters for Academic Career, Subject Area (LLAW), and Catalogue Number (1001). Below these filters is a table showing course effectiveness data for 'Law of contract I' across four semesters. The table columns include Academic Year, Academic Career, Subject Area, Catalogue Number, Course Title, Enrollment #, Response #, Response Rate (%), Mean Course Effectiveness, and Course Coordinator's Comments. The data shows a consistent response rate and mean effectiveness across the semesters.

Academic Year	Academic Career	Subject Area	Catalogue Number	Course Title	Enrollment #	Response #	Response Rate (%)	Mean Course Effectiveness	Course Coordinator's Comments
1 2017-18	UG	LLAW	1001	Law of contract I	284	156	54	77.6
2 2016-17	UG	LLAW	1001	Law of contract I	248	168	68	75.3
3 2016-17	TPG	LLAW	1001	Law of contract I	12	10	83	80.0
4 2015-16	UG	LLAW	1001	Law of contract I	288	152	53	74.3

Course effectiveness ratings are provided by the Social Sciences Research Centre (SSRC). If the number of response is less than 6, "Mean Course Effectiveness" will be masked. For further details, please refer to Operational Guide for Student Evaluation of Teaching & Learning.
