Faculty Academic Adviser

2. To ensure that your transition to the University is going well, each new student will have an academic staff to serve as your Faculty Academic Adviser (FAA). Please sign up for your FAA from 2:00 pm, 14 August 2023 (Monday) to 10:00 am, 21 August 2023 (Monday) at <https://ugaa.hku.hk/signup-faa.php>. If you do not sign up by 10:00 am, 21 August 2023, the System will randomly assign one to you.

Some quick notes:

- How to sign up: You will be directed to select from the list of advisers on a first-come-first-served basis.
- Who is FAA: FAA is a current teacher from your home Faculty who advises you on study-related matters.
- When to consult FAA: You are encouraged to approach your FAA whenever you need academic advice. Feel free to consult your adviser during the consultation hour (which can be found in your portal), or contact her/him by email to make an appointment.

 - When applying to take the Academic Speaking and Writing Test, students should provide evidence to their Faculties and the CAES1000 Course Coordinator that they were admitted to HKU using qualifications other than those included in the list.

- Applicants are required to show the evidence of those other qualifications to the assessor on the day of the Academic Speaking and Writing Test.
- If any applicants fail to provide any evidence that they were admitted to HKU using qualifications other than those included in the list provided by CAES, the CAES assessor has the rights not to allow the applicant to take the test.

Please note that:

• JUPAS students with HKDSE English Language Level 3 or Level 4 are NOT allowed to use any of the above equivalent standards to get exempted from CAES1000.

• Non-JUPAS students* are NOT allowed to use HKDSE results to get exempted from CAES1000.

• Test results (i.e., the above list* and HKDSE) should be in the same year in which students are admitted to the University. Test results obtained after the admission to the University will NOT be considered.

* Non-JUPAS students are allowed to use IELTS/TOEFL which is achieved within 2 years before admission to fulfil the English language requirement for admission.

8. Except for students who have achieved Level 5 or above in the English Language paper in HKDSE, the exemption is subject to application and provision of the documentary proof. If you have fulfilled one of the above criteria, please write to claren@hku.hk or approach the Faculty Office (address: 4/F, Room 415, Knowles Building) directly with the original official copy/certified true copy of the relevant qualification by 15 August 2023.

9. For students who are admitted to HKU using qualifications other than those included in the list above, they may apply to take the Academic Speaking and Writing Test if they wish to be exempted from taking CAES1000. Students who have been tested by the Centre of Applied English Studies to be of a standard equivalent to achieving Level 5 or above in English Language in HKDSE will be exempted from taking CAES1000. Students who are exempted will need to take an elective course in lieu. Please submit an application by email to claren@hku.hk on or before noon, 18 August 2023 if you would like to attend Academic Speaking and Writing Test scheduled for 24 August 2023. Late submission will not be accepted.

10. Students who are automatically exempted from taking CAES1000 course (i.e., for achieving Level 5 or above in English Language in HKDSE) may, at their own wish opt to take the CAES1000 course. In this case, students do not need to take an elective course in lieu.

Chinese language requirement

11. To satisfy the Chinese language requirement, student must take the following Chinese language course which will be offered in the Semester 2 of the First Year of studies:

CEUC9001 Practical Chinese for Surveying, Urban Studies, and Conservation students
