CAES9121 Communication Course for Architecture Students

Why do I need to take this course?
To learn to communicate as professional in your disciplinary field.

What will I learn?
- Persuasive language in speaking and writing
- Spontaneous speaking skills in professional contexts
- Collecting data through interviews with members of the professional community
- Tone and structure of formal business correspondence and reports

When will I take it?
In your 2nd year of study at HKU. This is university requirement.

How will I learn?
- Through analyzing authentic texts
- By understanding how architects and professionals in your discipline communicate and critique through writing and speaking
- By choosing your own research topic
- Through small group discussion and writing tasks
- By sharing ideas with your peers and critiquing each other’s work
- Through getting teacher feedback on your work to help you improve

For more information about the courses, please contact Louisa Chan, the Programme Coordinator for CAES Course for the Faculty of Architecture at lswchan@hku.hk.