What is Experiential Learning?

Experiential Learning is particularly essential to achieve the missions and objectives of teaching and learning of the Faculty of Social Sciences to produce students with a global perspective who are critical thinkers, socially aware, ready to embrace diversity and seek to make an impact on society.

WORK TO LEARN, LEARN TO WORK

About Experiential Learning...

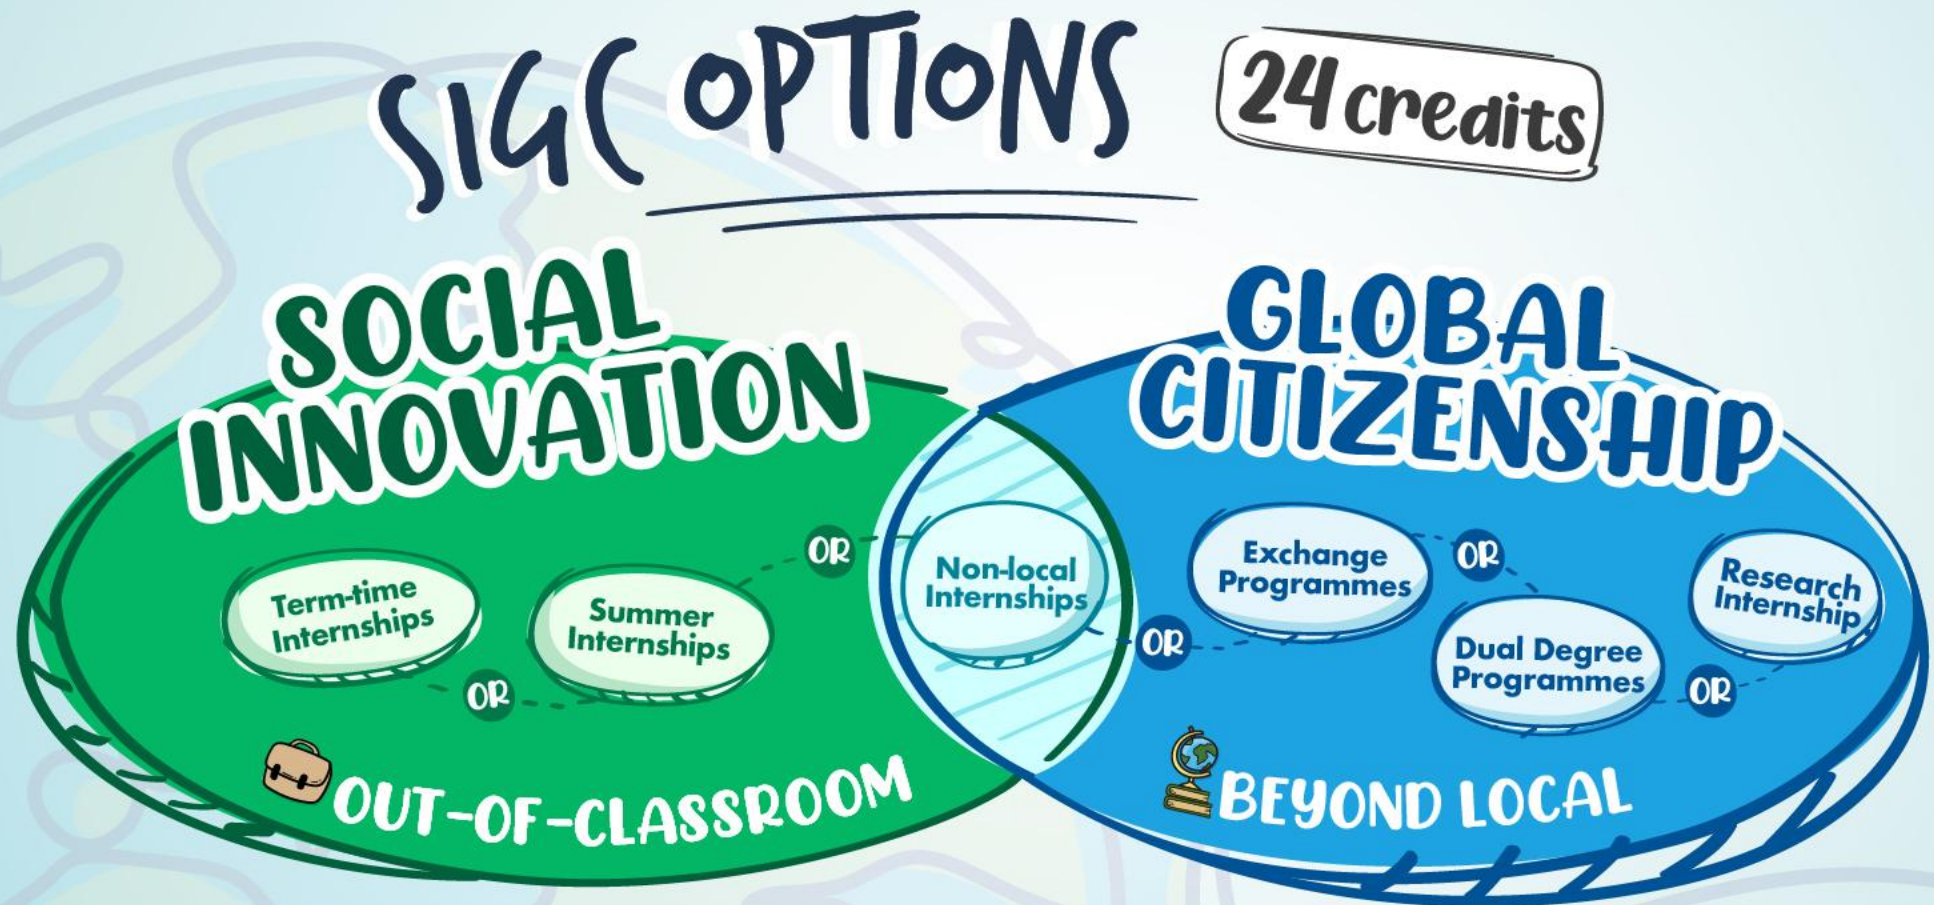

The Faculty has adopted two overarching themes of the off-campus experiential learning for its undergraduate curricula: Social Innovation (SI) and Global Citizenship (GC) since 2008.

In addition to local and non-local placement-based internships, the Faculty has coordinated various kinds of experiential learning programmes for Social Sciences students, including interdisciplinary-based projects, research internships and exchange programmes.
