English Courses for the
FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Code</th>
<th>Course Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CAES9921</td>
<td>Great Speeches: Rhetoric and Delivery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CAES9922</td>
<td>Language, Genre and Reports</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CAES9923</td>
<td>Writing Psychology: Text and Context</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CAES9925</td>
<td>Academic and Professional Literacies in Social Work (for Year 2 students in the Bachelor of Social Work programme)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CAES9930</td>
<td>Research Writing in the Social Sciences</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

These courses are designed to help you use written and spoken English from a variety of social science fields and from both academic and professional perspectives.

What course will I take?

You will choose the course that enables you to improve the language skill that interests you.

When will I take it?

In your 2nd or 3rd year at HKU. This is a university requirement.

Why do I need to take it?

Students in the social sciences need to recognise and effectively use linguistic and rhetorical devices appropriate to their field of study or future profession.

How will I learn?

In all these courses, your teacher will give you feedback to help you improve. Depending on the course, you will:

- Analyse the linguistic and rhetorical features and variations in different texts
- Participate in collaborative research and critical discussions
- Identify features of effective public speaking and polish your presentation skills
- Produce academic or professional writing in an appropriate style

For enquiries, please contact Dr. Eleanor Kwan, Program Coordinator for CAES courses for the Faculty of Social Sciences: ekwan@hku.hk

For more information about the courses