

The University of Hong Kong
Centre of Development and Resources for Students (CEDARS)

Lodging Fees for Students Residing in Residential Halls, Residential Colleges and Student Residences Year 2025~2026

IMPORTANT NOTES:

1. Residential Period for 2025–26

The residential year runs from 20 August 2025 to 29 May 2026.

2. Payment Policy

All charges for halls, colleges, and residences are non-refundable and non-transferable. Residents are responsible for full payment for the entire offered period (minimum one semester or the full residency period, whichever is shorter). For detailed fee structures and payment instructions, contact your Hall's General Office.

3. Compulsory Meal Plans

Residents of St. John's College, Ricci Hall, or University Hall must enroll in their Hall's compulsory meal plan. Contact your Hall's General Office for details.

4. Meal Options for Other Halls

Residents of other halls, colleges, or residences may use campus catering outlets or nearby facilities. Monthly meal expenses are estimated at HK$3,000 or more, depending on lifestyle and preferences.

5. Additional Charges

- Beyond lodging fees (and compulsory meal plans for the 3 Halls), residents must pay miscellaneous semester-based charges (e.g., students' association fees, high table fees, room/smartcard deposits). These range from HK$1,000-1,500 per semester (some fees may be refundable).
- Residents also cover laundry and in-room air-conditioning costs.
- Your Hall's General Office will provide a list of charges upon placement.

6. Payment Process

Invoices for hall charges will be issued by the University's Finance and Enterprises Office via your HKU email account:

- September for Semester 1.
- January for Semester 2.
- Payment must be made in HKD cash or via bank transfer to HKU's designated accounts (HSBC or Bank of East Asia, both with branches on the Main Campus).

7. Summer Residence

To stay in your hall during the summer vacation (June–August), submit an application to your hall/residence office by April. Additional charges apply.
